A 14 BILLION CONGRESS

Every Department Wants More Money Than Ever Before.

Washington, Dec. 6.—Estimates for the most elaborate program of expenditures ever asked of an American Congress in times of peace were submitted today proposing a total outlay of $1,285,857,808 or $170,853,614 more than was appropriated last year. The great increase is almost wholly due to the administration plans for military preparedness. More than $116,000,000 of the total is for direct expenditures on the army and navy, with millions more to be used in coast defense and other fortification work. By establishment the amounts asked were:

Legislative	$ 7,578,372
Executive	30,807,505
Judicial	1,368,500
Agriculture	24,159,089
Foreign intercourse	5,426,699
Military	151,354,259
Naval	211,518,074
Indian affairs	10,175,036
Pensions	160,575,000
Panama Canal	27,585,479
Public works	104,644,689
Postal service	316,361,879
Miscellaneous	98,290,563
Permanent appropriations	135,074,673

The postal service estimate is deductible from the total because its receipts are turned back to the treasury. That leaves $969,492,929 as the actual total of appropriations Congress is asked to make, or $167,853,401 more than last year.

Not one establishment of the government asked for less than was given last year. Many requests were made for increases because of developments of the war in Europe.

WOMEN AS LEADERS IN EDUCATION

Of the 12,000 conspicuous positions, largely of an administrative character, listed in the 1915-16 Educational directory just issued by the Interior Department through its Bureau of education, 2,500 are held by women. There are women who are college presidents, State superintendents of public instruction, county superintendents, directors of industrial training, heads of departments of education in colleges and universities, directors of schools for afflicted and exceptional children, and librarians.

Twenty-four of the 622 colleges and universities listed in the directory are presided over by women. Of the nearly 3,000 county superintendents in the country, 508 are women. The tendency to fill this position with women is almost wholly confined to the West. One State, Montana, has not one man as county superintendent. Wyoming has only two. Kentucky is the only southern State that utilizes women in this office; the State has 56 women as county superintendents. On the other hand, there are only 26 women city superintendents in a total of over 2,000.

Seventy institutions for the blind are listed in the directory. Of these 15 are directed by women. Of the 75 State schools for the deaf, 10 are under the leadership of women; and of the 22 private institutions of the same character, 16 have women superintendents. Of the 31 private institutions for the feeble-minded, 20 are under supervision of women.

Fourteen out of the 86 directors of industrial schools are women; and 48 of the 200 schools of art are in charge of women. Women have almost a monopoly of library positions. Out of 1,300 public and society libraries given in the directory women supervise, 1,075.

The Government Bureau of Education itself exemplifies the call for women in executive educational positions; 11 of the 33 bureau officials listed in the directory are women.
